- Ensure you clearly state the job title you are applying for.
- In the 'Employment history' section you must state why you have left a position.
- Always explain any gaps in work history.
- Proof of qualifications and membership to professional bodies may be required.

References

We will take up professional references once you have been interviewed and provisionally offered the post. Please make sure that you have given the full contact details of your referees so that this does not delay processing reference requests.

If you have no employer references, we will take up references with named individuals at colleges where you have studied, or people who know you in a professional capacity. Please do not put down family members or people you live with as referees.

You will only be confirmed in the post once we are satisfied with the information received from your referees.

Supporting Statement

The 'Why you feel you are suitable for this position' part of the form is called your supporting statement. It is the most important part of the application form.

You should consider the following:

- Applications can only be assessed on the information you provide. You need to clearly demonstrate your capabilities.
- You need to explain how you meet each of the person specification, essential and desirable criteria and provide examples from your previous experience.
- Do not forget to present this in relation to the job description.
- Often the strongest applications are those that link the three elements highlighted above and are presented in a clear format (e.g. numbered points that correspond to person specification).
- Honesty is always the best policy; please do not make false claims.
- If you are making a career change, stress what skills are transferable to the role you are applying for.
- Ensure you return your application in good time before the closing date - aim for the day before the deadline.
- Use concise, unambiguous sentences and avoid exaggerations.

Applicant Monitoring Form – please fill this out and send in separately either in an envelope with your application form, or in a separate email.

Finally good luck with your application and thank you for your interest in Blairs' Holiday Parks
